

The Alma Mater
of Western Washington University

"The White and Blue"

Verse (1)

Far above the Bay's blue water
Stands our own Sehome,
Guarded all around by mountains
Crowned by Baker's Dome.
Nestling there among the grandeur
Reigns the White and Blue
Colors of our Alma Mater
Hail all hail to you!

Verse (2)

Here the youth from town and seashore
Gather for the year,
Learning truth that shall be cherished
Forming friendships dear.
Soon the ties must all be severed
But they leave with you
Happy memories and best wishes
For the White and Blue!

The words are sung to the tune of "High above Cayuga's Waters," the Cornell Alma mater
